

Our Giving, Our Stories!

A series of giving profiles in celebration of
Black Philanthropy
Month

#WGCBPM2021
#BPM2021

Celebrating Black Philanthropy Month 2021

womensgivingcircle.org

3 Questions With ... Philanthropist, Adora Brown

Student Intern

The Women's Giving Circle of Howard County, Maryland is proud to elevate the voices and giving of our donors and friends throughout Black Philanthropy Month

one

what moves you to give your time, talent and financial resources?

I am moved by the idea that any individual person can make a significant impact on others. Although tasks may seem daunting or impossible, it is dedication that creates change. I continue to give every resource available to me, whether it is time spent looking for sponsors or highlighting the talented women who give back to the community. I continue to simply do what I can with the dedication I give each and every day.

two

when did you start giving to issues that are important to you?

I began giving in high school. I joined various school clubs centered around community service. From there my passion grew. As I obtained leadership in these organizations, I was able to facilitate and plan many of our service projects. I hope to continue growing from here, using the skills I learn daily to give in a greater capacity.

three

what advice do you have for those interested in giving back?

Get involved with organizations that push you to give. Surround yourself with the correct people and inspire each other to do good.

#givingcircles #collectivegiving
#WGCBPM2021 #BPM2021

The Women's Giving Circle is proud to continue our support for National Black Philanthropy Month 2021!

The WGC is building a community of philanthropists and creating a permanent legacy to address the needs of women and girls in Howard County, Maryland.

"We are excited to continue our support of National Black Philanthropy Month" said Hina Naseem and Judy Smith, co-Chairs of WGC's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee. "Informing, involving, inspiring and investing in Black philanthropic leadership and giving are among the goals of this annual celebration and we are committed to advancing this important work in philanthropy, both in our community and across the country."

www.womensgivingcircle.org