The Women's Giving Circle of Howard County, Maryland is proud to elevate the voices and giving of our donors and friends throughout Black Philanthropy Month

one

what moves you to give your time, talent and financial resources?

I give because I want to see our communities thrive in mind, body, and spirit!

two

when did you start giving to issues that are important to you?

Philanthropy, a lifelong passion for me and the foundation from which I move in giving back and amplifying our shared stories. My journey into giving of my time, talent, and financial resources began when I realized that there were gaps in meeting the needs of our communities in people to people collaboration positively focused on understanding.

three

what advice do you have for those interested in giving back?

Never stop uplifting humanity.

The Women's Giving Circle is proud to continue our support for National Black Philanthropy Month 2021!

The WGC is building a community of philanthropists and creating a permanent legacy to address the needs of women and girls in Howard County, Maryland.

"We are excited to continue our support of National Black Philanthropy Month" said Hina Naseem and Judy Smith, co-Chairs of WGC's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee. "Informing, involving, inspiring and investing in Black philanthropic leadership and giving are among the goals of this annual celebration and we are committed to advancing this important work in philanthropy, both in our community and across the country."
