

WGC's Our Giving, Our Stories!

An ongoing series of giving profiles designed to amplify the voices of women and girls in our community.

In Honor of Women's History Month

Celebrating Women's Giving in Howard County

3 Questions With ... Philanthropist Judy L. Smith

Sole Proprietor, On Point Consulting

The Women's Giving Circle of Howard County, Maryland is proud to elevate the voices and philanthropy of our members and friends throughout the year.

one

what moves you to give your time, talent and financial resources?

Giving my time, talent, and financial resources is a way for me to connect to my community in a meaningful way, share my blessings, support something larger than myself, and to have an immediate impact.

two

when did you start giving to issues that are important to you?

For as long as I can remember, I have been giving to issues that are important to me. As a child, I remember my parents providing opportunities for us to support our neighbors, community and local schools. This behavior became a habit and carried on into my adulthood. It was reinforced by the companies that I worked for through corporate outreach.

three

what advice do you have for those interested in giving back?

Don't question yourself, there is no perfect time or way to give, follow your passions, and "just do it".

#WGCOGOS #OURGIVINGOURSTORIES

The Women's Giving Circle is proud to amplify the voices and stories of women and girls in our community.

The WGC is building a community of philanthropists to address the needs of women and girls in Howard County, MD. www.womensgivingcircle.org

"We are excited to have built upon our support of National Black Philanthropy Month to develop "Our Giving, Our Stories" says Robin Stimson, WGC OGOS Chair. "Inspiring philanthropic leadership and increasing giving by amplifying the voices of women and girls are among the goals of this effort and we are committed to advancing this important work in our community."