

WGC's Our Giving, Our Stories!

A year-long series of giving profiles designed to amplify the voices of women and girls in our community.

Celebrating Women's Giving in Howard County

National Disability Employment Awareness Month

3 Questions With ... Philanthropist, RAYNA DUBOSE

Motivational Speaker, Athlete, Activist

The Women's Giving Circle of Howard County, Maryland is proud to elevate the voices and philanthropy of our members and friends throughout the year.

one

what moves you to give your time, talent and financial resources?

I have a passion for the youth in our community and the betterment of our community and world. I believe that the children are our future so let's give them all the tools and knowledge to prepare them for anything they go through in their lives.

two

when did you start giving to issues that are important to you?

I started giving honestly after a tragic accident that occurred in my life. When I truly learned and felt what it is to be blessed, grateful, appreciative, and thankful genuinely.

three

what advice do you have for those interested in giving back?

"No one is useless in this world who lightens the burdens of another." - Charles Dickens

#WGCORGOS #OURGIVINGOURSTORIES

The Women's Giving Circle is proud to amplify the voices of women and girls in our community.

The WGC is building a community of philanthropists and creating a permanent legacy to address the needs of women and girls in Howard County, Maryland.
www.womensgivingcircle.org

"We are excited to have built upon our support of National Black Philanthropy Month to develop "Our Giving, Our Stories" into a year-long philanthropic leadership recognition effort" said Hina Naseem and Judy Smith, co-Chairs of WGC's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee. "Inspiring philanthropic leadership and increasing giving by amplifying the voices of women and girls are among the goals of this effort and we are committed to advancing this important work in our community."