3 Questions With ... Philanthropist, Tracy C. Miller, MBA, Esq.

Attorney, Mediator and Collaborative Professional

The Women's Giving Circle of Howard County, Maryland is proud to elevate the voices and giving of our donors and friends throughout Black Philanthropy Month

one

what moves you to give your time, talent and financial resources?

I am blessed beyond measure and I give back in part because I am grateful, and in part because to whom much is given much is expected. I have benefited from the time, talent and resources of others, and I hope someone else is benefitting from my contribution of time, talent and resources.

two

when did you start giving to issues that are important to you?

In high school and college I gave of my time and talent to issues / matters that were important to me. Post college I began giving of my financial resources to my church, and other organizations' whose mission aligned with my personal beliefs.

three

what advice do you have for those interested in giving back?

It is so true, it is better to give than to receive. The satisfaction received from helping others is so gratifying. My advice would be to begin a practice of giving as soon as possible; everyone can give of his or her time to issues they find important.
